As you know, my brother's birthday ~~for~~ is knocking on the doors, but what might come as a surprise, is that it's also his graduation day, so we decided to hit two birds with one stone by putting them in one event. I'm over the moon that my brother is finally graduating.

~~The~~ The event will be hosted by us at our homes in two days time at 8 pm. I'm on pins and needles as we need to organize everything by then. I'm inviting you because ~~we~~ we've known each other since childhood. Also, my brother would appreciate it if you come with the surprise. It'd make my day if you decided to come.

I've got to go now as I've got lots to dig into. Don't have second thoughts of speaking your mind in your response.

Yours,

Write an article to explain how to help people in poverty.

You could explain:

- why it is important to help people in poverty
- ways to help people in poverty.

Your article should be between 100 and 150 words.

[23 marks]

Do you think that the issue of helping people in poverty has been taken as tightly?

Although, helping people in poverty does not grab headlines as much as other issues, it does not make it less serious. ^{shedding a light on why it is important to help people in poverty,} they are numerous. Not only do poor people lack basic needs such as shelter, food, water and health care, but also poor individuals have limited entry to education resulting in being unable to improve their future. Moreover, since people in poverty don't have access to health healthcare, they have low recovery rates. Apart from providing aid to ~~poor~~ ^{or} poor people empowering communities resulting in ^{building} more connected communities, ~~char~~ donation boosts people's personality traits such as gratefulness ~~or~~ empathy and being grateful. Also, donating enhances sense of unity and fulfillment as it brings people together.

Speaking about ways to help people in poverty, they are countable. In addition to society encouraging social support programmes as it can help stabilize struggling households, ^{the} government should upgrade healthcare system by reducing medicinal cost. Coupled with governments investing in education leading to humble people gaining necessary skills to enhance their job opportunities, ~~set~~ schools and companies should provide equal opportunities to resources such as education as well as work. Furthermore, society, which plays a crucial role, should raise awareness about the ~~struggles~~ hardships of ~~poor~~ poverty leading to more people helping.

In conclusion, I believe that the topic of helping people in poverty to be quite fundamental.
